

BYLAWS
OF THE MICHIGAN ACADEMIC ADVISING ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this association shall be the Michigan Academic Advising Association. It will also be known as MIACADA.

ARTICLE II

Object

Section I: Mission

The Michigan Academic Advising Association (MIACADA) is an organization of professionals from colleges and universities concerned with the intellectual, personal, and career or vocational advising needs of students within the State of Michigan. MIACADA was founded to foster the personal and professional development of its members by promoting quality academic advising in the state. It is a forum for discussion, debate, and the exchange of ideas regarding academic advising and related areas of higher education.

Section II: Notice of Nondiscrimination

MIACADA does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, creed, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, disability or marital status.

Section III: Definition of Academic Advising

Academic advising is an interactive process in which the advisor assists students in setting and achieving academic, social, and personal goals that are consistent with their interests, values, abilities, degree requirements, and career expectations. Advisors provide a wide range of information to students and may refer them to other appropriate campus resources. Advisors create a supportive environment in which they may challenge students to take responsibility for making appropriate academic and career decisions. Advising is personalized to consider the particular needs of each student.

Section IV: Goals

- A. Support and provide for the professional development of the membership.
- B. Establish a communication network among the members working in institutions of higher education in Michigan.
- C. Raise awareness and promote academic advising in the state of Michigan.
- D. Establish connections with other professional organizations in other states or within NACADA Region V and groups in the state of Michigan involved in higher education.
- E. Support the goals and programs of NACADA: The Global Community for Academic Advising.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section I: Eligibility

Membership in MIACADA is open to academic advisors, counselors, faculty members, administrators, graduate students, undergraduate students serving as peer advisors, and others whose interests are in the area of academic advising.

Section II: Admission

An eligible individual shall become a regular member in good standing upon payment of annual MIACADA dues.

Section III: Rights

All regular members in good standing shall be eligible to attend annual conference board meetings, vote in general member elections and inquiries, hold office, and utilize all the services and benefits provided by MIACADA.

Section IV: Dues

The Board of Directors shall set dues annually. The membership year is from May 1 through April 30. The Membership Chair will notify members of the need to renew each year. Those whose dues are not paid by June 1 shall automatically be dropped from membership in MIACADA.

ARTICLE IV Officers

Section I: Composition

The officers of MIACADA shall be: President, President-Elect, Immediate Past-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and three (3) members-at-large. The President must be a current member of NACADA by the time they take office. These officers shall perform the duties prescribed by these bylaws and by the parliamentary authority adopted by MIACADA. The NACADA State Representative may also serve as an officer of MIACADA with the term of office, duties and responsibilities as outlined in the NACADA governance documents.

Section II: Nomination Procedure

The Immediate Past-President will be responsible for soliciting nominations and facilitating the election process. An announcement of upcoming elections shall be sent to all MIACADA members prior to the election date. The Membership and Nominating Committee shall accept letters of candidacy from eligible members. Members may submit letters of candidacy on their own behalf or on behalf of other members of MIACADA providing the candidate agrees to serve as an officer if nominated and elected. Nominees do not need to be a member of NACADA to be nominated, but the individual elected as President-Elect will be expected to join NACADA upon transitioning to the role of President.

Section III: Elections

Officers shall be elected by a majority vote of eligible members.

Section IV: Terms of office

Officers, with the exception of the President-Elect, shall serve for a term of two years. Terms begin October 1. The President-elect shall be elected every year and serve a total of three years as President-Elect, President, and Immediate Past-President. The Secretary and one (1) member-at-large will be elected in even years; and the Treasurer and two (2) members-at-large will be elected in odd years.

Section V: Office Holding Limitations

Officers may not be elected to serve more than two consecutive terms in any office.

Section VI: Removal from Office

Officers may be removed for cause by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors or by a majority vote of MIACADA members by ballot vote. Officers removed by the Board of Directors may, upon protest, have their removal confirmed or disaffirmed by a majority ballot vote of eligible members.

Section VII: Interim Officers

In case of vacancy, resignation, or removal of the President, the President-Elect shall serve for the remainder of the term. In case of vacancy, resignation, or removal of any other office, the Board of Directors shall solicit nominations and appoint a new officer to fill the remainder of the term.
