MISSION

The Michigan Academic Advising Association (MIACADA) is an organization of professionals from colleges and universities concerned with the intellectual, personal, and career or vocational advising needs of students within the State of Michigan.

MIACADA was founded to foster the personal and professional development of its members by promoting quality academic advising in the state. It is a forum for discussion, debate, and the exchange of ideas regarding academic advising and related areas of higher education.

GOALS

- ◆ Support and provide for the professional development of the membership.
- ◆ Establish a communication network among the members working in institutions of higher education in Michigan.
- ◆ Raise awareness and promote academic advising in the state of Michigan.
- ◆ Establish connections with other professional organizations and groups especially those in the state of Michigan involved in higher education.
- ◆ Support the goals and programs of the National Academic Advising Association (NACADA).

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

MIACADA does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, creed, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, disability or marital status.
